COVET: Deceptive Desires #0.5 Prequel (A BWWM New Adult Romance)

Synopsis

For Jonathan Liam Delacroix Lemaitre II, everything revolved around the love of his life: Raven Shaw. But they were too young and too destructive. Raven thought they would always be friends, yet Liam knew a different truth. The son to a vast Legacy, he is shipped off to Paris at a tender age, leaving Raven to fend for herself, full of questions and doubts. Now, he has returned to town and determined to get back in her good graces. Gone is the clumsy, fat boy he once was. In his place stands a man ready to take on the world, with the woman he wants at his side. Raven, on the other hand, can see the new man but still searches for echoes of her friend. Who is this handsome guy that has swept into her life? He was Liam, but he wasn't HER Liam. And she wasn't sure if he ever could be.

Customer Reviews

I was given an Advanced Copy of this book to post an honest review. Let's get the overview out of the way first. This book is centered around two main characters, Liam and Raven. They are surrounded by shadowy individuals such as Elise, Jonathon, Charlene, Monica, Chris, Damon, Alvin and just a few others to help round out this peculiar cast. Liam and Raven are childhood friends that have had a connection almost from their very first encounter. Raven was in many ways Liam's protector and the more aggressive one of the two while growing up. After Liam abruptly leaves their midst with no further communication or interaction, Raven learns to wrap her heart in ice and only counts on the steady force and support of her grandparents. She continues to grow and while it may appear to everyone around her that she is a happy well-adjusted teenager, Raven's feelings and emotions have been frozen in time from the moment that little Liam walked out of her life. Fast forward a few years later and both Raven and Liam have grown and changed tremendously. Liam's overweight appearance has blossomed into a handsome, sculpted physique and what once was soft and pudgy is now sleek, hard, and toned. Raven likewise has grown in beauty. She hasn't grown much in stature being that she is a little over 5 feet tall but her beauty at least in Liam's eyes seems to have blossomed beyond description. After the initial shock and recognition sets in for Raven on who the handsome stranger is that she encounters in the mall, she quickly slides back into her icy shell and ice queen facade that she has learned to perfect over time. Liam's persistence and the feelings that never really died begin to thaw the coldness that has enveloped Raven.
